Fifty cents is a small doctor bill, but that is all it will cost you to cure any ordinary case of rheumatism if you use Chamberlain's Pain Balm. Try it and you will be surprised at the prompt relief it affords. The first application will quiet the pain. 50 cent bottles for sale by J. W. Gayle.

Forks of Elkhorn.

Home grown vegetables in abundance.

Strawberries past—raspberries present.

Butter plentiful and cheap—eggs scarce and dear.

Spring chickens are in demand at $3 per dozen.

Cherries are scarcer this season than for many years previous.

Hay, barley and wheat harvest now engaging the attention of farmers.

Vegetation of all kinds promises an abundant yield when harvested.

Regular services at Buck Run tomorrow at the usual hours.

Rev. H. C. Calhoun is conducting a protracted meeting at the Christian Church here.

The schools all having closed, teachers and children alike draw a long breath and sit down to rest.

Dr. W. T. Buckner, of this place, and Miss Lizzie Davis, of Shelbyville, were married last Saturday, June 11th. The happy young couple arrived at this place the same evening, where a hearty welcome awaited them. May their paths be strewn with sweetest flowers, and heaven's richest blessing attend them.

Mr. T. H. Hinde and family, of Chicago, who have been rusticated in our midst during the past few weeks, have returned home.

Mr. Wm. Wilkerson, who has been in delicate health for many years, remains very feeble.

Miss Blanche Stedman, of Fayette county, has been visiting friends in our midst during the past few weeks.

Mr. H. C. Greenup has so far recovered from his recent illness as to be able to sit up.

Our school picnic last Saturday, held in Mr. J. F. Goddard's grove, proved to be a very enjoyable affair. In consequence of the prevalence of measles in our community, however, many of the children were denied the privilege of attending.

Mr. F. M. Featherston has recovered from his recent illness.

Miss Mattie Lucas is visiting relatives in Woodford county.

Miss Elith Spicer is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Shanklin, in Cassamine county.

Bro. Burdin is engaged in a meeting with his church at Beech Ridge, Shelby county.

Mr. T. J. Lucas, after a siege of many months at law in Frankfort, is rusticated at his father's, near this place.

Mr. J. H. McBride and Mrs. Wm. West, who have each been in delicate health for quite a time, are still very feeble.

Dr. R. C. French, of Midway, has been in our midst this week.

Footpads and Colorado potato bugs have been notoriously absent from this section this season.

Mr. J. F. Goddard has so far recovered from his recent affliction (fractured leg) as to be able to attend to business.

Mr. Jack Wigington, of Scott county, paid our burg a visit the first of the week.

Some farmers, we understand (not in this immediate vicinity, probably) expect to turn hogs on their wheat in order to realize its full value, the price offered being deemed by them not sufficient to meet the expenses of labor and time expended in producing, otherwise than above mentioned.

Mr. Russell Hughes, who has been sojourning in Ohio for the past three or four months, has returned home.

Messrs. Wm. Ireland and Harvey Tinscher have been attending U. S. Court at Frankfort during the past two weeks, as jurors.

Miss Daisy Hockensmith, of Stamping Ground, is visiting relatives in our vicinity.

Just full of improvements—Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. To begin with, they're the smallest, and the easiest to take. They're tiny, sugar-coated, anti-billious granules, scarcely larger than mustard seeds. Every child is ready for them.

Then, after they're taken, instead of disturbing and shocking the system, they act in a mild, easy and natural way. There's no chance for any reaction afterwards. Their help lasts. Constipation, indigestion, bilious attacks, sick or bilious headaches, and all derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels, are promptly relieved and permanently cured.

They're put up in glass phials, which keep them always fresh and reliable, unlike the ordinary pills in wooden or pasteboard boxes.

And they're the cheapest pills you can buy, for they're guaranteed to give satisfaction, or your money is returned.

You pay only for the good you get.

Peak's Mill.

[DEFERRED MATTER.]

Mrs. Elizabeth Graham spent several days last week with her brother, Mr. Robert Church, of Tiger.

Mrs. R. B. Gwinn has returned home from a visit of several weeks to friends in Frankfort.

Mr. Frank Compton, a popular young man, who has been engaged in the milling business at this place for some time, and Miss Lillie Haynes, the charming daughter of Mr. James Haynes, were quietly married in Georgetown last Wednesday. After the ceremony the newly wedded couple went to Indiana where they will reside in the future.

Mrs. Laura Thompson, wife of Mr. D. C. Thompson, who has been ill at the home of her father, Mr. Jesse Hockensmith, near this place, for several weeks, died Wednesday morning. The bereaved and invalid husband has the sympathy of the whole community for himself and the infant son now bereft of a mother's care. The remains were interred in the cemetery at Frankfort.

Are You Going to the Ex?

If you are contemplating a trip to Chicago during the great Columbian Exposition and want a real first-class place to stop, where everything is done up in regular old Kentucky style, write to Mrs. S. F. Richardson, 162 Dearborn Avenue, Chicago, to save you quarters in her house. Mrs. Richardson is a former Frankfort lady, widow of the late Owen T. Richardson, and one of the nicest of house-keepers. Her terms are reasonable and she should be liberally patronized by people from her old home.

A Horrible Railroad Accident. Is daily chronic in our papers; also the death of some dear friend, who has died with Consumption, whereas, if he or she had taken Otto's Cure for Throat and Lung disease in time, life would have been rendered happier and perhaps saved. Heed the warning! If you have a cough or any affection of the Throat or Lungs call at Chapman & Williams' and get a trial bottle free. Large size 50c.

PLEASE RETURN.—The party who took by mistake from the office of Williams' stable in South Frankfort, on the first Monday in May, a brown overcoat, with a pair of dog skin gloves and a handkerchief in the pocket, is requested to return the same to H. R. Williams' grocery.
